THE RELIABLE MAN.

Of all the qualities that combine to form a good character, there is not one more important than reliability. Most emphatically is this true of the character of a good business man. The word itself embraces both truth and honesty, and the reliable man must necessarily be truthful and honest. We see so much all around us that exhibits the absence of this crowning quality that we are tempted in our bilious moods to deny its very existence. But there are, never-theless, reliable men, men to be depend-ed upon, to be trusted, in whom you may repose confidence, whose word is as good as their bond and whose promise is performance. If any one of you know such a man, make him your friend. You can only do so, however, by assimilating bis character.

The reliable man is a man of good judgment. He does not jump at conclusions. He is not a frivolous man. He is thoughtful. He turns over s subject in his mind and looks at it all around. He is not a partial or onesided man. He sees through a thing. He is apt to be a very reticent man. He does not have to talk a great deal. He is a moderate man, not only in habits of body, but also of mind. He is not a passionate man; if so by nature, he has overcome it by grace. He is a sincere man, not a plotter or schemer. He does not promise rashly. What he says may be relied on. He is a trustworthy man. You feel safe with your property or the administration of affairs in his hands. He is a watchful, vigilant man. You feel secure within his protection. He is a brave man, for his conclusions are logically deduced from the sure basis of truth, and he does not fear to maintain them. He is a good man, for no one can be thoroughly honest and truthful without being good. Is such a quality attainable? Most assuredly so. It is not born, it is made. Character may be formed; of course then its component parts may be molded to that forma-

"THE SHADOW OF AN ASS.

The Greeks had a proverb that runs thus: "To dispute on the shadow of an This took rise from an anecdote which Demosthenes is said to have re lated to the Athenians to excite their attention during his defense or a criminal which was being but inattentively listened to, "A traveler," he said "once went from Athens to Megara on a hired ass. It happened to be at the time of the dog days, at noon. He was much exposed to the unmitigated heat of the sun, and not finding so much as a bush under which to take shelter, be bethought himself to descend from the ass and seat himself under its shadow The owner of the donkey, who occom panied him, objected to this, declaring to him that when he lot the animal, the use of its shadow was not included in the bargain. The dispute at last grew so warm that it got to blows, and finally gave rise to an action of law." After having said so much, Demosthenes con tinued the defense of his client; but hi auditors, whose curiosity he had piqued were anxious to know how the judges decided on so singular a cause. Upon this the orator commented severely on their childish injustice in devouring With attention a paltry story about an ass shadow while they turned a deaf car to a cause in which the life of a human being was involved. From that day when a man showed a preference for discussing small and contemptible subjects to great and important ones, he was said "to dispute on the shadow of

THE RELIABLE MAN.

Of all the qualities that combine to form a good character, there is not one more important than reliability. Most emphatically is this true of the character of a good business man. The word itself embraces both truth and honesty, and the reliable man must necessarily be truthful and honest. We see so much all around us that exhibits the absence of this crowning quality that we are tempted in our bilious moods to deny its very existence. But there are, never-theless, reliable men, men to be depended upon, to be trusted, in whom you may repose confidence, whose word is as good as their bond and whose promise is performance. If any one of you know such a man, make him your friend. You can only do so, however, by assimilating his obaracter. The reliable man is a man of good judgment. He does not jump at conclusions. He is not a frivolous man. He is thoughtful. He turns over a subject in his mind and looks at it all around. He is not a partial or one-sided man. He sees through a thing. He is apt to be a very reticent man. He does not have to talk a great deal. He is a moderate man, not only in habits of body, but also of mind. He is not a passionate man; if so by nature, he has overcome it by grace. He is a sincere man, not a plotter or schemer. He does not promise rashly. What he says may be relied on. He is a trustworthy man. You feel safe with your property or the administration of affairs in his hands. He is a watchful, vigilant man. You feel secure within his protection. He is a brave man, for his conclusions are logically deduced from the sure basis of truth, and he does not fear to maintain them. He is a good man, for no one can be thoroughly honest and truthful without being good. Is such a quality attainable? Most assuredly so. It is not born, it is made. Character may be formed; of course then its component parts may be molded to that forma-

"THE SHADOW OF AN ASS. The Greeks had a proverb that runs thus: "To dispute on the shadow of an ass." This took rise from an anecdote which Demosthenes is said to have related to the Athenians to excite their attention during his defense or a criminal which was being but inattentively listened to. "A traveler," he said, "once went from Athens to Megara on a hired ass. It happened to be at the time of the dog days, at noon. He was much exposed to the unmitigated heat of the sun, and not finding so much as a bush under which to take shelter, he bethought himself to descend from the ass and seat himself under its shadow The owner of the donkey, who occom-panied him, objected to this, declaring to him that when he let the animal, the use of its shadow was not included in the bargain. The dispute at last grew so warm that it got to blows, and finally gave rise to an action of law." After having said so much, Demosthenes con tinued the defense of his client; but his auditors, whose curiosity he had piqued, were anxious to know how the judges decided on so singular a cause. Upon this the orator commented severely on their childish injustice in devouring with attention a paltry story about an ass' shadow while they turned a deaf ear to a cause in which the life of a human being was involved. From that day when a man showed a preference for discussing small and contemptible subjects to great and important ones, he

It has been stated that under the laws of Louisiana there can be no interter ence by courts after sentence or during the consideration of motions for a new trial. As General Anderson has been sentenced the prosecuting attorneys of Louisiana hold that in case of appeal he must remain in jail until the final deels ion is reached. There is a difference of opinion on this point among lawyers, and it is possible that a decision may be givon when the case is reached that a writ of supersedean from the Sapreme Court of the United States may discharge the prisoner from the custody of the State authorities.

ANOTHER HAND AT THE BELLOWS. Written for the Recentlean

The Sun of yesterday morning in comparing Durfee and Mussy, admits that Durfee, aside from the fact that Muzzy is the nomines of an anti-license caucus represents that idea, and is much the better man. It also says that were Durfee ton times better than he is, and Muzzy ten times meaner than he is, it would still be the duty of all temper ance people to vote for Muzzy. Think for a moment to what that kind of reasoning leads. That no matter how mean a man is, no matter how dishunest. no matter how contemptible and vile his character may be, no matter wheth er his word is good for anything or not, no matter if he is a man who is always ready to sell out, he is to be preferred to any other man, no matter how well he may be qualified, bow honest, how temperate, and how true.

But does Murzy represent the antilicense idea as well as Durfee? We usually judge men's future by their past. There is no other way to judge correctly. How has it been with these two men? Some years ago Durfee's friends solicit ed him to become their candidate for mayor; he would have liked the position, and gave a partial promise to make the race, but thought of the license question, and refused to run, because, if elected with a license council, he would by the courts be compelled to sign the licenses or resign. He preferred not Thou the inference is that all things being mayor to signing a license and he is the same man to-day that he was and what, let us inquire, is the differthen.

How has it been with Muzzy? On that personally Durfee is preferable to Saturday night Lew Bunn complained Muzzy. "Tile attention of our readers is called to the two communications in to day's paper, regarding the aldermanship in the Second Ward. The writers are responsible citizens, who know what they are talking about.

IT has been stated that under the laws of Louisiana there can be no interfer ence by courts after sentence or during the consideration of motions for a new trial. As General Anderson has been sentenced the prosecuting attorneys of Louisiana hold that in case of appeal he must remain in jail until the final decision is reached. There is a difference of opinion on this point among lawyers, and it is possible that a decision may be givon when the case is reached that a writ of supersodess from the Supreme Court of the United States may discharge the prisoner from the custody of the State authorities.

ANOTHER HAND AT THE BELLOWS. Written for the Republican.

The Sun of yesterday morning in comparing Durfoe and Mussy, admits that Durfee, aside from the fact that Muzzy is the nomines of an anti-license caucus represents that idea, and is much the better man. It also says that were Durfee ten times better than he is and Muzzy ten times meaner than he is it would still be the duty of all temper ance people to vote for Muzzy. Think for a moment to what that kind of reasoning leads. That no matter how mean a man is, no matter how dishunest, no matter how contemptible and sile his character may be, no matter wheth er his word is good for anything or not. no matter if he is a man who is always ready to sell out, he is to be preferred to any other man, no matter

But the Nun says "were Durfee ten times more worthy than his strongest friends picture him, and were Muzzy ten times as worthless as his most bitter enemies picture him, Durfee should now be defeated and Muzzy elected.' Can this be true? Does such talk accord with the views of any rational man? Can it be possible that an intelligent people can be led, driven or influenced to vote for a bad man and against a good man? Can it be that if the two who sat on the mount when the world was offered as a bribe, should present themselves in Decatur to-day as candidates for alderman of the 2nd Ward, that the citizens of that ward could be influenced by a caucus or primary convention or otherwise to give his sooty majesty the preference and by their votes instal him for two years in the City Council as their represen-

THE THE PARTY NO SHOULD BING. Two Large Meetings Saturday Night.

Notwithstanding the fleree storm of

The mesting was called to order by "Brother Jeto" and after singing prayer was offered by Rev. B MacBurney.

Another spay followed the prayer, when from the president of the meeting, took the stand and made a most effective fifteen minutes' speech. He said that the tem perance movement now in progress was not inaugurated for the purpose of carrying an election, but for the purpose of improving seclety. Those engaged in this work had no ill-will toward saloon-keepers, but desired to make better men o them which would be accomplished lif they were taken out of the whisky business. They wanted, also, to lift up the fallen and restore them to sobriety, happiness and prosperity. Temperance workfrom the young men, which now exist in the saloous of the city and the associations that cluster around them. By the labors of those who have been engaged in this temperance compaign a public sentiment has been awakened which calls for the Heensing of no more saloons, and in order that no more salcons shall be li sensed, it is necessary to have a mayor and a board of aldermen who are opposed to license, and that, said the speaker, is what we propose to do next Tuesday.

Mr. Bunn proceeded to say that if an anti-license mayor and an anti-license council were elected, the present ineffi cient police force would be removed and men would be put in their places who would enforce the ordinances of the city. It was claimed by the speaker that there was scarcely a day passed, or an hour in any day, when the city ordinances were not violated by saloon men. The Sunday law was also violated by them all every Subbath, and the police knew this to be the case and refused to interfere. Gambling places are also in full blast, with the full knowledge of the police force and yet they are not molested.

The speaker said that the object of sarrying this election is to remedy these evils by electing a mayor and a board of aldermen who will appoint men on the police force who will do their duty, and sho will stand by them in doing it; and he also claimed that with the present board of aldermen, if a policeman did his full duty, he would at once be discharged from the force, and cited one instance in which a policeman had been removed. because he had arrested a saloon man who had violated the city ordinances. Mr. Bunn's speech, though pointed, was delivered in a good spirit. He was heartily applauded in the progress of his plain

The next meaker was the Rev. S. Mar-Burney, who made a racy, pleasant talk of about 10 minutes, which kept the audience in the best of humor. He related an allegery which he read a few days ago, which he thought taught a lesson in regard to men retaining their self-respect which they cannot do if they become by attending these meetings, professed their love for the temperance cause, and he desired that they might attest their sincerity on Tuesday next, by voting for men who, in their official capacity, will guard the interests of the cause Brother Johany was then called out, and made an earnest appeal to any present who had not yet signed the pledge, to do so at once. He said the eyes of the people of other cities were turned toward Decatur to see what would be done on Tuesday next. If temperance should there was alro a crowded house, where the meeting was addressed by Rev. II. O. Hoffman, Rev. S. MacBurney and Col. Rowell. We hear the speeches of these gentlemen spoken of in the most flattering terms, as being able and effective in behalf of the temperance cause. The large audience listened with undivided attention from the opening of the meeting to its close, and the remarks of the speakers evidently carried conviction to the minds of those in attendance of the importance of temperance as a means of promoting the peace and prosperity of any community. AT JANES CHAPÉL was a third meeting, which was also largely attended, and was characterized by considerable enthusiasm. The speakers here were J. E. McCullough, J. B. Mc-Donald, Rev. J. R. Locke and others. "Brother Johnny" is said to have made a very effective speech on this occasion, and the effort of Mr. J. B. McDonald, of our own city, showed him to be a work man that needn't be ashamed. His points were put in his own peculiar style, and we learn from those present that the meet ing was one of the best of the campaign AT THE COURT HOUSE.

The fourth meeting was at the court house, where the principal speaker was Hon. A. B. Bunn. After singing the opening piece, prayer was offered by Mr. E McNabb. After another song the president, Mr. J. B. Winebrenner, jutroduced a gentleman originally from the Emerald Isle, but now from Lake City,---This speaker addressed his remarks par ticularly to the Irish voters, and exhorted them to be at their post on election day. and vote for temperance. The speaker was evidently not experienced in speechmaking, though he made some very good points, and was heartily applauded. The next speaker was Hon, A. B. Bunn.

and he, as usual, spoke in an able man nor upon the general subject of temper ance. In alluding to the election he said that he could not believe it possible that after months of labor on the part of the temperance people of Decatur, that they would fail at last to elect men to office who would refuse to license the sale of Intoxicating liquors. He believed that the temperance ticket would provail. In concluding his remarks the speaker said he wished to refer to a matter that was personal to himself, and wished to answer certain statements which were made concerning himself by Mr. H. B. Durfee at a temperance meeting held in the First M. E. Church, and he proceeded to say that Mr. Durfee had never taken bim from a saloon, as he claimed he had done in his remarks at the meeting in question neither had Mr. Durfee ever contributed a dollar or a dime toward the purchase of a suit of clothes for him, as he said he had done. Mr. B. said that both state ments were falsehoods. With the above statements Mr. Bunn closed his remarks

Capt. Post was then called upon, and spoke for a short time, making a strong appeal to temperance voters to stand by their principles, when they should come to vote on Tuesday.

Mr. George Lyon also made remarks to the effect that he intended to vote the straight temperance ticket

It was then announced that there would eagrand raily at the court house to night, and as this is the only meeting to be at a premium.

THAT TERRIBLE SCOURGE. Fever and ague, and its congener, bilious remittent, besides affections of the stomach, liver and bowels, produced by miss matic air and water, are both eradicated and prevented by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a purely vegetable clixic, indorsed by physicians, and more extensively used as a remedy for the above class of disorders, as well as for many others, than any medicine of the age. A languid circulation, a torpid state of the liver, a want of vital stamina, are conditions peculiarly favorable to malarial dis eases. They are, however, surely remedied by the great Preventive, which, by invigorating the system and endowing it with regularity as well as vigor, provides it with a resistant power which enables it to withstand disorders not only of a mislarial type, but a heat of others to which feeblo and ill-regulated systems are subject. The Bitters are a safe as well as searching eradicant, and have widely su perceded that dangerous drug, quinine, which palliates but does not cradicate

IMPORTANT.

The ladies will please remember that M. Goldburg, No. 5 Merchant street, has added to his already large stock of Zephyrs and Germantown Yarn a new wool called the "Crewel," which he will sell 1, 4 and full ounces. This article is used for embroidering, doing any and every kind of work: it will work better and last longer, and keep the color better than anything yet found. Zephyrs of the best unice, all shades and colors, reduced since New Years to 15 cents an ounce, Germantown Yarn, full measure, if any one wishes to measure, but it is more practical to sell it by weight; hencoyon was get a skein of it for 20 cts, or $1.50 a pound. Everything in the notion line,-Coracts. Ladies' Underwear, Cunvas, Turkish Toweling, Linen Canvara for zephyr and crewel work,-I will sell at the lowest possible prices. Respectfully,

THE PERSON NOTICE BURG. Two Large Meetings Saturday Night.

Notwithstanding the fleres storm of wind and rain which prevailed on Satur-Leaton, the pastor, and "Brother Jake," cach of whom, we understand, inside unit the distribution of people desiring itsed and able addresses, but as we had no reporter at this meeting we can give no synopsis of the speeches made. The

The meeting was called to order by singing was in charge of D. L. Buno, Faq, Brother John, and after singing prayer and the meeting was in all respects a was offered by Rev. 8 MacBurney.

Another tops followed the prayer, when I L Suna, the president of the meeting, took minutes' speech. He said that the temperance recvement now in progress was not inaugurated for the purpose of carryimproving seciety. Those engaged in this work had so ill-will toward saloon-keeners, but desired to make better men of them, which would be accomplished lif they were taken out of the whisky business. They wanted, also, to lift up the fallen and restore them to sobriety, happiness and prosperity. Temperance workers also desired to remove temptations from the young men, which now exist in the saloons of the city and the associations that cluster around them. By the labors of those who have been engaged in this temperance compaign a public sentiment has been awakened which calls for the licensing of no more saloons, and in order that no more saloons shall be li

The speaker said that the object of carrying this election is to remedy these evils by electing a mayor and a board of aldernien who will appoint men on the board of aldermen, if a policeman did his full duty, he would at once be discharged from the force, and cited one instance in which a policeman had been removed because he had arrested a saloon man who had violated the city ordinances. Mr. Bunn's speech, though poluted, was delivered in a good spirit. He was heartily applauded in the progress of his plain

Burney, who made a racy, pleasant talk of about 10 minutes, which kept the audience in the best of humor. He related an allegery which he read a few days ago, which he thought taught a lesson in regard to men retaining their self-respect which they cannot do if they become slaves to whisky. He said that people, by attending these meetings, professed their love for the temperance cause, and he desired that they might attest their sincerity on Tuesday next, by voting for men who, in their official capacity, will

guard the interests of the cause Brother Johany was then called out, and made an earnest appeal to any present who had not yet signed the pledge, to do so at once. He said the eyes of the Tuesday next. If temperance should win, he believed that a shout of joy

AT STAPP'S CHAPEL there was alre a crowded house, where the meeting was addressed by Rev. II. the stand and made a most effective fifteen [O. Hoffman, Rev. S. MacBurney and Col. Rowell. We hear the speeches of these gentlemen spoken of in the most flattering terms, as being able and effective in by an election, but for the purpose of behalf of the temperance cause. The large andience listened with undivided attention from the opening of the meeting to its close, and the remarks of the speakers evidently carried conviction to the minds of those in attendance of the importance of temperance as a means of promoting the peace and prosperity of any community.

AT JANES CHAPEL was a third meeting, which was also largely attended, and was characterized by considerable enthusiasm. The speakers here were J. E. McCullough, J. B. Me-Donald, Rev. J. R. Locke and others.

"Brother Johnny" is said to have made a very effective speech on this occasion, and the effort of Mr. J. B. McDonald, of our own city, showed blin to be a work man that needn't be ashamed. His points were put in his own peculiar style, and we learn from those present that the meet ing was one of the best of the campaign AT THE COURT HOUSE.

The fourth meeting was at the court house, where the principal speaker was men would be put in their places who Hon. A. B. Bunn. After singing the opening piece, prayer was offered by Mr. It was claimed by the speaker that there E McNabb. After another song the president, Mr. J. B. Winchrenner, introduced a gentleman originally from the Emerald Isle, but now from Lake City .-This speaker addressed his remarks par ticularly to the Irish voters, and exhorted them to be at their post on election day, and rote for temperance. The speaker was evidently not experienced in speechmaking, though he made some very good points, and was beartily applauded.

The next speaker was Hon. A. B. Bunn, and he, as usual, spoke in an able man ner upon the general subject of temper police force who will do their duty, and lance. In alluding to the election he said who will stand by them in doing it; and that be could not believe it possible that he also claimed that with the present after months of labor on the part of the temperance people of Decatur, that they would fail at last to elect men to office who would refuse to license the sale of intoxicating liquors. He believed that the temperance ticket would prevail. In concluding his remarks the speaker said he wished to refer to a matter that was personal to himself, and wished to anwer certain statements which were made concerning himself by Mr. H. B. Durfee it a temporance meeting held in the First M. E. Church, and he proceeded to say that Mr. Durfee had never taken him from a saloon, as he claimed he had done in his remarks at the meeting in question, neither had Mr. Durfee ever contributed a dollar or a dime toward the purchase of esuit of clothes for him, as he said he had done. Mr. B. said that both statements were falsehoods. With the above statements Mr. Bunn closed his remarks. Capt. Post was then called upon, and spoke for a short time, making a strong appeal to temperance voters to stand by their principles, when they should come to vote on Tuesday. Mr. George Lyon also made remarks to the effect that he intended to vote the straight temperance ticket It was then announced that there would eagrand mily at the court house to night, and as this is the only meeting to be held this evening, standing room will be at a premium.

THAT TERRIBLE SCOURGE. Fever and ague, and its congener, bilious remittent, besides affections of the stomach, liver and bowels, produced by miss matic air and water, are both eradicated and prevented by the use of Hostetter's Stomath Bitters, a purely vegetable clixic, indorsed by physicians, and more exten sively used as a remedy for the above class of disorders, as well as for many others, than any medicine of the age. A languid circulation, a torpid state of the liver, a want of vital stamina, are conditions peculiarly favorable to malarial dis cases. They are, however, surely reme died by the great Preventive, which, by invigorating the system and endowing it with regularity as well as vigor, provides it with a resistant power which enables it to withstand disorders not only of a mislarial type, but a host of others to which feeble and ill-regulated systems are subject. The Bitters are a safe as well as searching eradicant, and have widely su perceded that dangerous drug, quinine, which palliates but does not cradicate 4 dawiw

TRYING TO LIVE WITHOUT WORK.

The following, from the pen of Horace Greeley, is true and applicable to this day: "Our people are too widely inclined to shun the quiet ways of producing labor, and try to live and thrive in the crooked paths of speculation and need-less traffic. We have deplorably few boys learning trades, with ten times too many anxious to get into business; that is to devise some scheme whereby they may live without work. Of the journey men mechanics now at work in this city we judge that two-thirds were born in Surope, and the disparity is steadily augmenting. One million families are trying to live by selling liquors, tobacco, candies, etc., in our cities, who could be spared therefrom without the slightest detriment; and if these were transferred to the soil, and set to growing grain, meats, wool, etc., or employed in smek ing the metals, or weaving the fabrids for which we are running into dobt in Europe, our country would increase its wealth at least twice as fast as now, and there would be far less complaint of dull trade and lard times." Notice. - As I wish to retire from the jewelry business, I will sell my entire stock, consisting of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silver and Plated Wore, Modical Instruments, &c., ac, at first cost, for each only. TRYING TO LIVE WITHOUT WORK.

The following, from the pen of Horage Greeley, is true and applicable to this day: "Our people are too widely inclined to shun the quiet ways of producing labor, and try to live and thrive in the erooked paths of speculation and need-less traffic. We have deplorably few boys learning trades, with ten times too many anxious to get into business; that is to devise some scheme whereby they may live without work. Of the journey men mechanics now at work in this city we judge that two thirds were born in Europe, and the disparity is steadily augmenting. One million families are trying to live by selling liquors, tobacop, candies, etc., in our cities, who could be spared therefrom without the slightest detriment; and if these were transferred to the soil, and set to growing grain. ments, wool, etc., or employed in smelt ing the metals, or weaving the fabrids for which we are running into debt in Europe, our country would increase its wealth at least twice as fast as now, and there would be far less complaint of dull trade and hard times."

Notice. - As I wish to retue from the jewelry business, I will sell my entite stock, consisting of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silver and Plated Wore, Midde cal Instruments, &c., &c., at first cost, for each only. All desiring anything in my line may be convinced that I mean what I say by giving me a call.
